

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Jaroslav Hajecek

E-mail: hajecekj@volny.cz

Nationality: Czech

Currently a student of the Bachelor program, International Relations and European Studies – Combined course at the Metropolitan University Prague.

Member of: Czech Armed Forces Active Reserves, serving as an Assistant Secretary General for Czech Republic in CIOR (INTERALLIED CONFEDERATION OF RESERVE OFFICERS / CONFÉDÉRATION INTERALLIÉE DES OFFICIERS DE RÉSERVE)

Professional Experience

Honeywell International Customer Support Manager Business and General Aviation August 2006 - Present

Supporting business and general aviation aircraft with Honeywell equipment on board. Support of Honeywell Service centres within EMEA region in terms of logistical, commercial and contractual support.

Valeo Engine Cooling Project Manager August 2004 – July 2006

Working as a project manager for customer application projects of heat exchangers for car air-conditioning systems.

Aero Vodochody ltd. Sikorsky S76 C+ Program Management February 2003 – August 2004

Working in program management of Sikorsky S76C+ helicopter manufacturing as a supply chain and cost control manager.

Self-Employed October 2002 – February 2003

Representing UFC Aerospace Corp. from New York, USA as an aircraft components salesman.

Prague NATO Summit November 2002

Worked with the White House Advance Office and the White House Communications Agency in support of Presidential Motorcade. Served as interface between the Embassy and the White House in planning and staffing motorcade needs. Insured that all needed assets were in place to assure smooth running Presidential motorcade operation.

Aero Vodochody ltd.
Supplier Management & Procurement
APRIL 2001-AUGUST 2002

Sikorsky Helicopter Program
April 2001– May 2001

Responsible for supplier follow up. Informed suppliers of quality requirements for production parts and made sure that the contracts were fulfilled properly, and quality requirements met.

Program procurement Manager Boeing F/A-18E/F Gun Bay Door & BAE B767 Fixed Leading Edge programs (Aerostructures Business Unit)
May 2001 – December 2001

Buyer and supplier manager position for the F/A 18 E/F Gun bay door program and Boeing B-767 Fixed Leading Edge program.

L159B+L159A Jet fighter/trainer (Military Business Unit) Program Procurement Manager
December 2001- August 2002

In December 2001 I was reassigned to Aero Vodochody's new development program of an advanced jet fighter-trainer L159B.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
May 1999 – March 2001
Missionary service in Utah – Provo Mission, U.S.A.

AMPI s.r.o. , Prague
September 1998 – April 1999
International sales/representative. Performed customer service duties in support of equipment sales and maintenance.

Czech Air Force Service
6th Transport Air Base Prague – Technical Supervision Wing
August 1997- August 1998
Helicopter Airframe/Powerplant specialist. Responsibility: Maintenance of helicopter fleet.

Education

1992-1995 Aircraft Maintenance School

1995-1997 Mechanical engineering course

Language skills

English: professional (NATO STANAG 6001, level 3)

Able to perform translating and interpreting services as well as simultaneous interpreting.
Fields of expertise: Military Operations, Aerospace Industry, and Business

German and Russian: beginner level

Hobbies and interests:

Sports (fitness, mountain biking), aircraft maintenance and restoration, model aircraft building

Member of:

Czech Airmen Association, Czech Armed Forces Reserve Brigades Association

I have never been convicted of a criminal offence.(Police check report available upon request)

All of The facts stated in this C.V. are true and correct.

Prague .....

.....

Jaroslav Háječek